

Oregon Career and College Readiness (CCR)
Action Group

Who is C3?

Office of Student Access & Completion (OSAC)

Building Partnership to Support CCR

Purpose:

- Collaborate for consistent message
- Partner to reach broader audience
- Better transitions

Action Steps:

- CCR specialists at HECC, ODE, CEEdO
- Cross sector training opportunities
- Collaboration meetings

Reach Higher Commitments

Reach Higher Initiative	Statewide Priorities
Exposing students to college and career opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase postsecondary enrollment • Increase work-based learning opportunities
Understanding financial aid eligibility that can make college affordability a reality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase FAFSA completion
Encouraging academic planning and summer learning opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase use of the Education Plan & Profile
Supporting high school counselors who can help more kids get into “college”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase CCR professional development opportunities

What has C3 done?

Regional Trainings

- Tillamook Bay CC
- South Coast Success

Resources

- Data
- Promising Practices
- YouTube Channel

Website

- Upcoming Events and News
- Resources

Reach Higher Summer Summit

- July 19-20, 2016

What will C3 do?

Regional/District
Mapping & Trainings

- Eastern Oregon Promise
- Douglas County
- Parkrose High School

Resources

- Measure 98 support
- CCR state definition
- Ongoing data

Website

- Searchable by audience & topic
- Promising practices

Summer Summit

- Coming 2018!!

Questions?

Lori Ellis, OSAC
Career and College Readiness Specialist
Lorianne.m.ellis@state.or.us